Alumni and friends may invest in naming opportunities for design studios, seminar room, iLab, and offices. These gifts would establish new unrestricted endowments that would be used to address the needs of a particular room or suite on second floor Stanley Hall. Funds would support facility renovations, instructional programs, research, students, and/or faculty.

*All naming opportunities are subject to University of Missouri approval.