The Gensler Brinkmann Scholarship was established as a memorial to Don Brinkmann, an inspirational and gifted interior designer who personified the essence of design vision and leadership.

HISTORY OF DON BRINKMANN

As a Gensler Principal and Design Director, Don worked with clients around the globe to create places of distinction and value. His portfolio of award-winning work spans product design, showrooms, corporate offices, law firms and specialty environments.

Upon his passing in 1998, Gensler established the Brinkmann Scholarship Fund to continue Don’s career-long commitment to nurturing new design talent.

APPLICATION PROCESS

Institutions are invited to nominate up to two eligible students per CIDA-accredited program for consideration by Gensler. A nomination letter from the dean or chair of the program must be included in the materials submitted by the applicant. The nomination letter must confirm that the applicant meets the eligibility criteria as well as describe his/her professional excellence.

Applicants for the Gensler Brinkmann Scholarship must complete the following steps by December 15, 2012:

1. Complete the online application form at www.gensler.com/scholarships
2. E-mail application materials in a single PDF file (7MB max) to brinkmann@gensler.com
   • Resume
   • Letter of nomination from dean or chair of academic institution
   • One advanced-level commercial interior design project with written description (500 words and 10 pages, maximum). Group projects will not be considered.

SELECTION CRITERIA

Gensler will review submissions and select finalists and winners based on academic excellence, design ability and presentation creativity.

GREAT DESIGN IS INFORMED

We are in search of creative rigor. We believe that great design is based on deep and thoughtful research, and we want to understand your process for resolving design challenges. Top submissions will communicate and demonstrate how a challenging design question is informed by facts and knowledge.

GREAT DESIGN IS PURPOSEFUL

Design works to sustain our communities, celebrate culture and provide value to those we serve. Successful submissions reveal user-driven innovation that provides tangible and measurable benefits to people and organizations.

GREAT DESIGN IS COMPELLING

Make us shout with joy! Bold, memorable and provocative spaces engage design passionately. The best submissions will push the boundaries of creative expression and refined execution.
