Valuing Authenticity: Contemplating the Truthful and Meaningful in Design

Carol Ann Williams Lecture in Design

Interior Design & Architecture Lecture Series

Jessica Senne, AIA, NCIDQ
Aaron Senne, AIA

Thursday, March 22; 9:30 am
Tate Hall 22

Jessica Senne and Aaron Senne have been partners in design and life since receiving their degrees in Environmental Design from the University of Missouri in 2003. Upon completion of their bachelor degrees, Jessica and Aaron pursued Master of Architecture Degrees from Washington University in St. Louis. Today Jessica is Assistant Professor of Interior Design with Maryville University, and both are co-principals of the St. Louis-based boutique design firm, Studio Lark.

Lecture is open to the public.