Work sessions giving more attention to your needs. In the mornings, the west entrance to the library opens at 7:30 am, but the north doors (the Lowry Mall entrance) are not unlocked until 8:00 am.

2: Welcome, Introductions, and Goal Setting . This is a social gathering to meet colleagues and to develop goals for the week. Refreshments served.

6. Ruth's home for supper. 1805 Cliff Drive. Casual dress.

3. Most campus offices will open at 7:30 a.m. If you want a parking permit, go to <http://parking.missouri.edu/html/main.cfm> There will be time on Monday morning to pick up your parking permit.

7. Optional : Night-life in the Columbia College Town. <http://www.discoverthedistrict.com>

4. All workshop sessions are in 232 Stanley Hall unless identified in another location. If you have a graduate committee identified, feel free to invite them to your presentation and committee meeting.

Lodging accommodations: (1) You may select to stay in a University Residence Hall. MO: 573 882 4440 Past years' participants were very complimentary of the lodging. Each year there are cancellations just before the seminar starts -- so keep checking. (2) If you wish to stay at any of many local hotels, there are several...the Hampton Inn, Marriott Courtyard, Stoney Creek Inn, The Broadway (downtown), The Gathering Place (close to MU Campus). Check distances on MapQuest to see if you will need a rental car or choose to car pool with someone else staying at the same hotel. You may wish to have a roommate to help with costs too.

Reading: Tuesday: Howard Becker. (1986) Writing for Social Scientists: How to Start and Finish Your Thesis, Book or Article. Chicago: Univ of Chicago Press.
