ArchSt 1100

Visual Design

This is a 3 credit hour, 16-week, introductory course in basic design and visual composition with application to creating two- and three-dimensional abstract and/or functional design work. The hybrid delivery model – lecture, studio, and online content – is structured around exercises in drawing, composition, branding, and abstract models, using various media.

Learn Adobe Photoshop
No prerequisites